Did you know?

The Guild Mark, salmon en fesse with 3 silversmith's hammers, was designed by Dr. Donald C. MacKay who was an original Honorary Member of the Guild and Principal of the Nova Scotia College of Art. The Mark, registered in 1953, was based on the first Nova Scotia Provincial Crest and also echoes the arms of the Edinburgh Guild of Hammermen (Deacons). It can be used by Guild members on work made of precious metals. Its use is controlled by the Warden of the Guild.
